SIERRA CLUB,
ACADEMY OF SCIENCES BUILDING,
ROOM 51A,
SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA.

December 28, 1894.

Mr. John Muir,

Martinez, Cal.

My dear Mr. Muir:--

What shall we do in reference to the Caminetti Bill which I forwarded to you some days since?

Mr. Geary writes and expresses his willingness to amend the bill as we see fit. I will call together such Committee as you might wish. There is a standing Committee of Parks and Reservations that might be called upon to act. I should be glad to hear as soon as possible in reference to the matter.

I enclose to you the final draft made by Mr. Olney of the Resolutions for the Yosemite Commission. This was adopted after considering the suggestions of the other Directors.

Will you kindly sign them and return them to me at once. I shall ~~ask the others to~~ sign and then forward them to the Commission, without delay

Yours truly,

Ellison S. Loomis

Secretary of Sierra Club.

I forward also the engraved resolution concerning Mr. Bayley, will you sign & return them, please.
