

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1894-12-29

Letter from Katharine [Merrill] Graydon to John Muir, 1894 Dec 29.

Katharine Merrill Graydon

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Graydon, Katharine Merrill, "Letter from Katharine [Merrill] Graydon to John Muir, 1894 Dec 29." (1894).
John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 6950.
<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/6950>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

[Dec. 29, '94]

[1]

2530 College Ave.
Berkeley.

Dear Mr. Muir,

If you are in the city, or if you can come, next Wednesday, will you not come over at twelve o'clock and take lunch with me?

A lovely piece of Indiaven-polia (though now of Stamford fruit.) is to spend next Tuesday & Wednesday with me, and as she has often expressed her desire to see you - knowing you of old through Aunt Kate - I write to ask if ^{Miss Johnson} you will come down. She is one of the women I hold rare.

01906

H. Johnson
6/12

If you would take the 'Bus
at Dougherty Bay Station, there would be no difficulty in finding the house. Do come.

I hope you are all ~~expecting~~ escaping the annual attack of Grip at this season, and have had a happy Xmas. The weather here is simply zile.

I have been miserably ill
since I saw you last; but for three weeks have been up & out.

The one absorbing event
at home is the arrival of a little daughter to my sister Julia, and which she has named Katharine. This is not Aunt Katie, but my niece & I am very happy in being so remembered & so enriched.

But the best news of all is that dear Janet has been brought home - not well, but much better. She seems herself, but is very nervous, as would any well
person be who could sleep
but two nights out of the seven.

Hoping to see you on Wednesday, and with love
to the family, I am

Sincerely yours,

Katharine Graydon.

Dec. 29th 94.