

1895-01-04

Letter from Katharine [Merrill] Graydon to John Muir, 1895 Jan 4.

Katharine Merrill Graydon

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

---

Recommended Citation

Graydon, Katharine Merrill, "Letter from Katharine [Merrill] Graydon to John Muir, 1895 Jan 4." (1895). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 6959.
<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/6959>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Berkeley, Cal.

Jan. 4th, '93.

Dear Mr. Muir,

Your letter came yesterday just as Miss Thompson had left.
I did want her to see you.
May I not bring her up
some night Sunday?
She's rare, an old friend of Miss Eliza's & Aunt Katie, and one whom we all love.

Let. do write to faint - a little letter, she needs the cheer which 01918

comes from friendly thought. Her address is 946 S. Penn. st.

Indianapolis.

The family now lives in the beautiful, new house which Charles bought.

Sunt. Kate has given up coming this winter. Her address is 227 N. Capitol Ave.

Ludpi, Ind.

Any remembrance of yours
will please her.

School opens next Monday
& the grind begins, but I am grateful that this term is at hand, for its close brings home. I think I shall

[2]

get through it all right.

With love to the family, I am
sincerely yours,

Katharine Graydon.

[marked "Indianapolis letters"]

Berkeley, Cal.,
Jan. 4th, '95.

Dear Mr. Muir,

Your letter came yesterday just as Miss Thompson had left. I did want her to see you. May I not bring her up some bright Sunday? She's rare, an old friend of Miss Eliza's and Aunt Kate's, and one whom we all love.

Yes, do write to Janet a little letter, she needs the cheer which comes from friendly thought. Her address is 946 N. Penn St., Indianapolis. The family now lives in the beautiful new house which Charles bought. Aunt Kate has given up coming this winter. Her address is 227 N. Capitol Ave., Indianapolis, Ind. Any remembrance of yours will please her. School opens next Monday and the grind begins, but I am grateful that this term is at hand, for its close brings home. I think I shall get through all right.

With love to the family, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Katharine [Merrill] Graydon