My dear Sellers,

Welcome to the brightest of the bright lands of sunshine, deepest snows, and — deepest — muds. Oh dear I'm sorry, but You know "This is exceptional Earth & sky one poultice, all the land gone hereabouts to agricultural gravy, boundless endless & sublime, rivaling the best bogs on the Continent. bridges like tourists on their travels wandering about on the highways, seeking rest — Dry Chicago boulevard Your experience on the mountains I admire that was clean & kindly.

Well anyhow I'm delighted you are here & if the railroad bridges stand I'll be down to see you tomorrow. I hope you are well all's well here.

Ever cordially Yours friend John Miner
