

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1895-02-15

Letter from Sarah [Muir Galloway] to John Muir, 1895 Feb 15.

Sarah Muir Galloway

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Galloway, Sarah Muir, "Letter from Sarah [Muir Galloway] to John Muir, 1895 Feb 15." (1895). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 6996.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/6996>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Portage, Wis.

Feb. 13th / 95

My dear Brother John

You asked me to keep you informed in regard to Joanne's affairs. I have just found out that she is greatly in need of help just now as Father has been able to send her only nine dollars since some time in Nov. She has quite a bill run up for needed provision and at present Father has no way of earning money to send her. He says the water business is dead just now. there is no

01945

much snow that he cannot get his wagon out, and if he could, there is no demand as people are melting snow for what they cannot get otherwise. He hopes to do better when the spring sets in. He says he has been trying to find some other way of earning money but so far has not succeeded and says he feels almost crazed to think of how she and the children will be getting along. Gramma and the children are well. J - keeps up good courage always hoping for better things, and feeling that God will care for her in his own way. It is all about equal.
Very affectionately Sarah.