DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

WASHINGTON, Oct 10, 1890.

Mr. John Muir,
Martinez, California.

Sir:-

By recent Resolution of the Senate it is made my duty to investigate alleged spoliations in the Yosemite Park and "Big Tree Grove" in Mariposa County, California. I am told that you have information on the subject. I shall be greatly obliged if you will at an early day give me a full statement of the condition of these two reservations and of such spoliations of the same as you may have observed.

Very respectfully,

John W. Noble

Secretary.
